

These are not books, lumps of lifeless paper, but MINDS alive on the shelves. From each of them goes out its own voice.

By Taking down one of these volumes and opening it, one can call into range the voice of a man far distant in time and space, and hear him speaking softly to us, mind to mind, heart to heart.

Gilbert Highet

*Masons have more need to read than men in almost any other society or organization.
... to pursue Masonic studies for the joy of it, or even for the fun of it.*
